Council welcomes plans for bedsits for young residents

AXMINSTER Town Council welcomes five potential town centre bedsits but “deplores” the fact that work has started before plans have been approved.

The idea is to turn the former premises of Axminster Dental Practice at 19 St George's, Chard Street, into five bedsits.

The applicant says the bedsits would be aimed at youngsters looking to leave the parental home and live independently.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) planning officers have an issue with overlooking and members of the Development Management Committee deferred the matter for further consultation and determination of lawful use.

The application has been submitted by St George's Properties Axminster Ltd, whose planning agent said: “The applicant is aware of the situation in Axminster where local youngsters find it difficult to leave the parental home and set up independent lives due to the very high cost of property in the area.

“Government schemes are in place to ease the situation, but the applicant feels that these are aimed at mainly young people looking to settle down fairly permanently rather than those who merely wish to take the first steps toward ‘leaving the nest’.

“In the light of this, the applicant feels that 19 St George's can provide economic bedsit accommodation, probably for some of those not fortunate enough to experience the lifestyle at university, but who nonetheless wish to embark on independent living away from home.”

A report by planning officers added: “There has been concern raised with regard to the potential for anti-social behaviour, but this is not considered to weigh against the scheme.

“The proposal would result in the habitable use of a first floor room which has two existing windows facing the opposite flat in close proximity. This would result in an unacceptable level of overlooking.”

Town and district councillor Andrew Moulding, however, said: “I recommend that this application is approved. I agree that there may be a degree of overlooking, but probably no different to other properties within the St George's complex.”

Axminster Town Council's response to the application was: “The presentation of the plans/elevations is confusing.

Town councillors deplore the fact that this is a retrospective application as the work has already started. Otherwise, they welcome this type of accommodation in Axminster.”

The application was heard by the Development Management Committee on March 3rd, and an EDDC spokesperson explained: “The application was deferred to allow officers to determine the lawful use of the upper floor and to allow for consultation on the proposed window screening which had been submitted by the applicant after the committee papers had been published.”

Bedsits plan for former dentist's

AXMINSTER Town Council welcomes five potential town centre bedsits but "deplores" the fact that work has started before plans have been approved.

The idea is to turn the former premises of Axminster Dental Practice at 19 St George's, Chard Street, into five bedsits.

The applicant says the bedsits would be aimed at youngsters looking to leave the parental home and live independently.

East Devon District Council (EDDC) planning officers have an issue with overlooking and members of the Development Management Committee deferred the matter for further consultation and determination of lawful use.

The application has been submitted by St George's Properties Axminster Ltd, whose planning agent said: "The applicant is aware of the situation in Axminster where local youngsters find it difficult to leave the parental home and set up independent lives due to the very high cost of property in the area."

"Government schemes are in place to ease the situation, but the applicant feels that these are aimed at mainly young people looking to settle down fairly permanently rather than those who merely wish to take the first steps toward 'leaving the nest'. From the editor's chair Public debate looks doubtful

IN A little less than nine weeks time we shall be going to the polls and it is generally accepted that this General Election will be the dirtiest fought for some time.

With the East Devon Alliance entering the fray in the local elections on May 7th, challenging the Tory controlled council by fielding candidates in most seats, it looks as though the fight for EDDC seats will be just as robust.

Following a spat between local Tory whip Phil Twiss and EDA Sidmouth candidate Matt Booth over alleged inappropriate emails, the EDA challenged Councillor Twiss to a public debate and asked me if I would chair such a meeting.

I agreed in the hope that if it happened we could have an adult debate on the issues facing East Devon during these difficult days for local government.

I have already been accused of showing undue favouritism to the EDA and being ultra-critical of the current Tory regime. So I doubt that me taking the chair will be very popular in certain quarters. But I am prepared to give it a go.

However, it seems that such a debate is unlikely to take place with Councillor Twiss rejecting the offer, saying he would rather "stick white hot pins and needles in his eyes than share a room with Matt Booth!" That'll be a no then.

I understand that the EDA are passing on their invitation to other high ranking Tories, including leader Paul Diviani.

One high profile East Devon Conservative told me he did not think there was much to be gained from the Tories entering the fray in this manner.

He pointed out that they enjoyed a huge majority (42 seats out of 58) on East Devon District Council and whilst they should take the EDA seriously, they did not feel they would make much of an impact on May 7th.

I have seen the email correspondence that has been toing and froing between Councillor Twiss and EDA chairman Paul Arnott, some of which I believe verges on the actionable.

If the top Tories say 'yes' to a debate, the chances of it being a constructive debate are slim indeed.

SEATON

NatWest stands firm over closure

NATWEST bosses stood firm and refused to reconsider their decision to close the Seaton branch on March 11th. They came under sustained fire on Thursday, March 5th from an agitated 50 or so-strong crowd in the Town Hall.

In a joint venture, Seaton Town Council and Seaton and District Chamber of Commerce had invited NatWest top brass to explain the hugely unpopular decision.

The arguments have already been well-documented: NatWest says the footfall in the branch is too low, but many local residents and business owners are unhappy with the reduced level of service the closure will bring.

NatWest says services are available at the Post Office and that a mobile banking vehicle visits Seaton once a week for one hour.

NatWest CEO (Exeter and North Devon) Donna Edmonds - who was accompanied by Director of Business Banking Sam Curtis and Director of Commercial Banking (Devon) Steve James - said that footfall in the Seaton branch is in the bottom 20% of the country.

The methods for measuring footfall were questioned and one member of the public quickly pointed out that the bank's decision to go from five opening days a week to three played a part in the reduced footfall.

Bank bosses were also accused of short-sightedness, not taking into account the current growth of Seaton with houses and flats being built in the hundreds - plus the construction of the Jurassic centre.

Some of those present indicated they will take the matter higher up the NatWest chain of command in an attempt to reverse the closure.

OTTERY ST MARY

West Hill: first steps to independence

LEADERS of the West Hill independence campaign have claimed victory in the first round of a long battle to determine whether the village splits from Ottery St Mary.

An overwhelming majority of the residents who packed the village hall for a public meeting on Friday evening voted in favour of taking further steps towards independence.

The West Hill Parish Campaign Group will now look to secure the signatures of at least 250 village residents for a petition that would trigger a review of the local government structure.

West Hill is currently represented by four ward members serving as part of Ottery St Mary Town Council, but campaigners are bidding to break off and form an authority of their own.

They say having a parish council serving only the people of West Hill will give the village a clearer voice by cutting out a layer of local government.

It has also been suggested that independence would enable the village to take more control over planning matters.

After winning the endorsement of residents at Friday's meeting, the campaign group is now working to put the formal processes in place.

HONITON

Facebook post spark election row

HONITON pensioners have been urged to make their voices heard ahead of the local and national elections in May, after concerns were raised that they are being portrayed as a "drain on society".

Neil Duncan-Jordan, the head of the National Pensioners Convention, delivered the message to a meeting of the Honiton Senior Voice group, warning that older people must fight to secure a fair deal from politicians.

Mr Duncan-Jordan said it was important for local pensioners to dispel negative "myths" about older people in the run-up to polling day.

The call to arms came in the same week that new research showed a third of people over 60 in the South West feel "invisible" to the major political parties.

Speaking at Honiton Methodist Church in New Street, Mr Duncan-Jordan encouraged the town's older people to "raise hard questions" with the candidates competing for their votes.

"To listen to some politicians at the coming election, you might think older people - not the banking crisis - are the cause of our economic problems," he said.

"We are often portrayed in a negative way, as a drain on society, whether we are acting as 'bed blockers' or joy-riding with our bus passes. Our interests are even set against those of young people whom we care for."

"While there are better-off retirees, the majority of pensioners have an income of less than £10,500 - below the poverty line."

Councillor clashes with political rival after 'offensive' comments

by Jack Dixon
jack@pemedial.co.uk

A SENIOR East Devon councillor has sparked a social media row, after accusing a rival political candidate of using "offensive" language online.

Conservative councillor Phil Twiss, who represents the Honiton St Michael's ward, criticised the "destructive views" of an East Devon Alliance candidate standing for election in Sidmouth.

Councillor Twiss highlighted a string of "irresponsible" Facebook posts made by EDA candidate Matt Booth, who announced his intention to run for a district council seat last month.

The Honiton councillor, who has since taken his complaints to East Devon District Council's elections officer, pointed to examples of language "many would find offensive" used by Mr Booth to criticise Conservative party policies.

He also claimed that Mr Booth's comments exposed the EDA, which formed recently to provide an umbrella organisation for independents, as a "complete sham", working with other parties to unseat Conservatives at the elections in May.

In a statement on behalf of the EDDC Conservative group, Councillor Twiss said: "Mr Booth states that... far from being a group of independents standing under an umbrella organisation, the EDA is a complete sham, orchestrating a campaign with the Labour, Liberal Democrat and Green parties to replace the Conservative administration at EDDC and, therefore, subject to the whims of the party line - not independent by anyone's stretch of the imagination."

Councillor Twiss referred to a particular comment made by Mr Booth via Facebook on February 4th, shortly after the EDA announced its launch as a political party, which read: "Announced today this is what we're doing across East Devon to take control of the Tory led district council in May. Has been planned with Lab, Lib Dems and Greens. Whatever you have to do don't let them back in."

Councillor Twiss suggested the party was "misleading" members of the public about its intentions, and that he had taken his concerns to EDDC's election officer.

He also highlighted a series of posts in which Mr Booth had used expletives in criticising national Conservative party figures, adding: "Some views expressed by Mr Booth - using language many would find offensive - aside from being irresponsible, offer no plan or solution to key issues that are in the best interests of all of the taxpayers of East Devon. They are destructive, not constructive."

"He is clearly wedded and associated to another place, with no obvious loyalty or affinity to Sidmouth. The electorate there must decide if Mr Booth and others in the EDA party are fit and proper people to represent them and stop misleading people into thinking that they are something they quite obviously are not."

The fledgling EDA party was launched last month and is intending to challenge for at least 40 of the district council seats in May.

Last month, the party announced seven candidates to stand in Sidmouth, including Mr Booth, who will compete to represent the Sidmouth Town ward.

Responding to the allegations, Mr Booth said: "I of course apologise if any comments I made on Facebook may have upset anybody or caused offence, but in my view there are much more important things to be dealing with.

"However, if this is the way that Mr Twiss would like to carry on, then he is more than welcome to come and look through my bins as well."

EDA leader Councillor Ben Ingham said it was important for candidates to be "thoughtful" about what they say in public, but that the issue had since been dealt with.

He said: "I don't use Facebook so am blissfully unaware of this, but I have been told what happened. I have been assured that Matt Booth has dealt with these Facebook issues appropriately."

"In hindsight, freedom of speech is a wonderful thing but within local politics each of us has to be very thoughtful about what we say in public."

"I have been assured that any mistake he has made has been put right already. Unfortunately, the same cannot be said for the series of mistakes Councillor Twiss has been making for the last four years. Hopefully the people of Honiton will put this right for us all on May 7th."

No affiliation to other parties

In November Councillor Twiss made similar complaints to Devon and Cornwall Police's cybercrime unit about comments posted on independent councillor Claire Wright's website, which referred to a "cull" of Conservatives in East Devon. No further action was taken after the incident was reported.

In response to the latest allegations, EDA chairman Paul Arnott, from Colyton, denied there was any connection between the alliance and other political parties.

He said: "Councillor Twiss' latest assertion about the East Devon Alliance arises from his not engaging with opponents' ideas, but fumbling for snippets about them online, like Billy Bunter at a keyhole."

"A brief phone call to any of the party leaders in East Devon would immediately have told him that our alliance of independent candidates has no connection at all with any of them."

"To make this crystal clear, I have been chairman of the EDA for this entire process and have not had a single communication with any local, national or inter-planetary leaders, or minions of any political parties. When I say independent, I mean independent."

"I hope he will take this in the spirit intended when I give him the advice I give my four children, which is, for heaven's sake get off Facebook and get a life."

■ FOLLOWING a heated exchange of emails between Councillor Twiss and Mr Arnott, seen by Pulman's View, the EDA leadership has challenged Conservative councillors Twiss and Paul Diviani to a public debate in Honiton, with the proceeds from ticket sales to be donated to local charities.

Pulman's View understands that Councillor Twiss has rejected an offer to participate in the debate. In an email to Mr Arnott, Councillor Twiss said he would "rather stick white hot pins and needles in my eyes than share a room with anyone remotely associated with half-wits like Matt Booth."

East Devon refuses plans for 'inappropriate' development

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

PLANS for three terraced houses and a flat in Castle Street, Axminster, have been refused by East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Development Management Committee (DMC).

The application was to demolish the premises of Ivor Chubb Motorcycle Engineers to make way for the development, but the site is in a conservation area, and planning officers recommended refusal because they felt the proposed design would be inappropriate.

Axminster Town Council and local district councillor Andrew Moulding supported the proposal, but DMC members sided with planning officers.

An agenda report by planners said: "The site is within the designated conservation area where there is a policy requirement to preserve or enhance its historic character."

"It is considered that the design of the terrace, by reason of the scale, bulk and design would unduly dominate and be inappropriate to the historic character of the street scene."

"The Conservation Officer has raised an objection to the current design as it fails to meet policy requirements in this regard.

"Furthermore the height and massing of the building would obscure a neighbouring window leading to an oppressive outlook for the occupiers."

"As such an officer recommendation of refusal is made."

Councillor Moulding, on the other hand, is quoted elsewhere in the report as saying: "I would like this application to go to committee, as I consider that the proposal is appropriate, within its location."

"In my view, the design of the dwellings fits well with the street scene and I am comfortable with the roof relationships with adjacent dwellings."

"I am surprised that if there was an officer view that there were possible improvements to the design, that these issues were not able to be resolved with the applicant prior to a recommendation and report being made."

Green Party welcomes influx of new members

EAST Devon Green Party celebrated the arrival of more than 100 new members at the February monthly meeting.

At the meeting, held on the February 12th at Sidmouth Unitarian Church, long-term party members were outnumbered by all the new arrivals.

Green Party co-ordinator Emily McIvor said: "The meeting was really positive and it was great to see so many new faces, we have had around 100 new members join since last October and we are looking forward as a group to ensuring an active Green Party presence across the district in the lead up to the elections."

The party has selected Paul Edwards as parliamentary candidate for Tiverton and Honiton Constituency.

National Trust seeking new volunteers

THE National Trust in East Devon is on the lookout for new volunteers to help manage countryside and coast.

Whether you love getting your boots muddy and being active rain or shine, or are more at home welcoming visitors, the trust is seeking people with a passion for their local area.

A volunteer open day will be held on Saturday, April 11th at Branscombe Village Hall. The National Trust team is based at Branscombe but covers a much wider area from Honiton to Exmouth. Caring for cliffs, hill forts, heritage sites, beaches and woodland, the volunteer jobs are as varied as the places they look after.

Area ranger Ruby Cole said: "We are looking for volunteer countryside rangers to help with coppicing, hedge-laying, strimming, replacing steps and orchard pruning."

"We'd also love to create a new beach volunteer group to help welcome visitors to this important part of the Jurassic coastline and we need help from someone who can work from home, creating newsletters for our volunteer team.

"In addition to these new opportunities we are always on the lookout for more room guides to share their passion for history at Shute Barton, near Axminster and Manor Mill in Branscombe."

"Depending on the role you don't need to commit to volunteering every week (although it would be great if you can) and there are options both during the week and at weekends – just come along and have a chat."

Georgie Toogood has been helping the ranger team for four months and said: "I like working in a team, learning new skills; and I love the way it makes me feel at the end of the day, healthily tired and happy."

The volunteer open day is between 1pm and 4pm. For more information, contact Ruby Cole on 01297 680507.

Probus members learn to plan for the unexpected

ENTITLED "Planning for the Unexpected", members of the Seaton and District Men's Probus Club did not know what to expect from the talk ahead of their latest meeting.

As it turned out the presentation proved very interesting and relevant for members. Speaker Ian Hunt used his personal experience of a sudden, near-fatal illness when still in his 20s to illustrate how we never know what is around the corner and how this had made him grasp opportunities that he would otherwise have put off.

This, and his experience as a solicitor helping people after accidents or illness has hit, has led Ian to propound a simple message: plan, talk and live.

Making a will and ensuring that this is updated as necessary is one of the most important planning measures we can take, and a show of hands by his audience satisfied him that members had this well covered.

There was less awareness of the advantages of having a Power of Attorney completed, and of some of the other actions we can take to ensure our wishes are carried out. Talking to our spouses and/or families, discussing our wishes and intentions with them whilst we are able, will help to minimise problems at a later stage.

Unattended pan smokes out flat

HEAVY smoke developed in a Honiton flat when a pan was left unattended on a cooker. Firefighters were called to Westcott Way at 10.55am on Friday, March 6th.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The crews gained entry to the property via the front door. The flat was heavily smoke-logged. A pan had been left on an electric cooker, so crews removed the pan to open air and isolated the electrics. The cause of the fire was accidental."

Medical practice receives 'good' rating after inspection

AXMINSTER Medical Practice has been awarded the second highest overall Care Quality Commission (CQC) rating.

It is the practice's first inspection since the CQC implemented its new grading system. Various aspects of practice life are inspected by using a four-level grading system - outstanding, good, requires improvement and inadequate. Each aspect is graded individually, which forms the base for the overall grading.

Summarising, Professor Steve Field, chief inspector of general practice, said about Axminster Medical Practice: "Patients reported having good access to appointments at the practice and liked

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

having a named GP which improved their continuity of care.

"The practice was clean, organised, with facilities and equipment to consult with, examine and treat patients. There were effective infection control procedures in place.

"Feedback from patients about their current care and treatment was consistently positive. Staff were motivated and inspired to offer kind and compassionate care and worked to overcome obstacles to achieving this.

"Views of external stakeholders were very positive and aligned with our findings. The practice was well-led and had a clear leadership structure in place whilst retaining a sense of mutual respect and team work.

"There were systems in place to monitor and improve quality and identify risk and systems to manage emergencies. Patients felt safe in the hands of the staff and felt confident in clinical decisions made.

"There were effective safeguarding procedures in place. Significant events, complaints and incidents were investigated and discussed. Learning from these events was performed and communicated amongst all staff.

"We saw one area of outstanding practice: the practice provided carers with health and wellbeing checks, these detailed health checks were followed by a discussion session on a one to one basis with the carer about their needs and what other services may be available to them.

"However, there were also areas of practice where the provider needs to make improvements. Importantly, the provider should; ensure that there is a record of the distribution of blank loose leaf prescriptions; ensure that a standard operating procedure is in place for the safe storage and use of liquid nitrogen."

Drama club to celebrate 70 years

AXMINSTER Drama Club turns 70 this month, and past and current members and supporters will celebrate in style.

The club was formed on March 19th 1945 and its first production was "Hayfever" that year. 1968 saw the club's first pantomime, Aladdin, and since then the club has produced a pantomime as well as a play or musical show pretty much every year.

In July 1992 the club purchased the Plaza (formerly the old Shand Factory Social Club) behind The Guildhall, which was formerly regarded as one of the best dance halls in East Devon and was well used during the war by visiting service personnel and locals.

As well as housing a clubroom, which doubles up as a rehearsal space, The Plaza is now home to literally thousands of costumes made, altered and reused and hundreds of pieces of scenery and props, which have a habit of being recycled and reappearing as something completely different.

Club member Tim Leat said: "Over the years a great many Axminster residents, both young and old, have had their first experience of appearing on stage as well as being well entertained thanks to the club.

"To celebrate the birthday, Axminster Drama Club would like to thank all its loyal supporters by offering a unique evening of entertainment, free of charge, as well as inviting back its past members and giving them an opportunity to reminisce via the club's old scrap books and display of past shows."

The ADC Birthday Bash will take place on Saturday, March 21st from 7.30pm in the Guildhall when current members will perform a variety of singing, dancing and acting as well as the cutting of "an enormous cake".

Free tickets for the night can be reserved by phoning current chairman Sara Leat on 01297 35187 or by emailing Norrlet@aol.com

Special meeting called to discuss development of east end of town

AXMINSTER Town Council has called an Extraordinary General Meeting to discuss a developer's proposal to build up to 75 homes, including 25 per cent affordable housing, on land between Lyme Road and Sector Lane.

An application for outline planning permission has been submitted by Persimmon Homes (SW) Ltd. The applicant has also outlined a larger area east of the town, between Lyme Road and Millway Rise, which could be developed as a "strategic masterplan" in the future, to include more housing, job opportunities, a new school, open spaces and sports and play facilities.

This larger area has been split into three sections with the current application for 75 homes being on the "southern site".

The planning application says the "strategic masterplan" offers the opportunity to "create an attractive new neighbourhood that helps meet the growth aspirations for Axminster and ensure future sustainability of services in the town".

The final decision will be made by East Devon District Council but, as part of the planning process, Axminster Town Council will make a recommendation.

Town councillors will discuss the application during the EGM, which has been called for 7.30pm on Monday, March 16th in the Guildhall. The EGM will be immediately followed by the annual parish meeting.

Outline planning permission is sought to establish if the location concerned is suitable for the type of development proposed. If it is, a full planning application must be submitted and approved before construction can start.

Full details of the planning application can be viewed online at <http://bit.ly/1Ev6Vpu>

HEAD shaves and cake sales were just some of the activities held by staff and students at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster to raise money for Sightsavers. Senior members of staff were among those "targeted" including Mr Perks who had his legs waxed and Mr Horn who had his head shaved. Sightsavers fights what is known as preventable and avoidable blindness. A spokesperson explained: "We want to eliminate avoidable blindness and get equality for people with disabilities. We help blind people to see, prevent others from going blind unnecessarily, and support people to live independently if their sight loss can't be undone. The causes of avoidable blindness go further than eye disease, so we don't just slap a sticking-plaster on the problem – we campaign to make a fairer world and change lives for the long term." THE Trill Trust, an educational charity based at Trill Farm, near Axminster, has appointed its first director of education.

Jolyon Chesworth (pictured) has been selected as the first director and his job description is "to develop and implement a strategy for education at Trill using the beautiful habitats and wildlife on the farm as the basis of learning; to manage and promote the annual programme of courses and events hosted at Trill Farm; and to strengthen Trill's relationship with local and regional environmental educational communities".

He has a passion for the natural environment, having spent the last 15 years working for conservation organisations to help protect our wonderfully rich habitats and wildlife.

Jolyon said: "I'm never happier than when outside, wandering around the woods and meadows, or down on the seashore exploring the rockpools.

"I love experiencing the change of seasons and there is now a wealth of evidence that demonstrates that the simple act of being outside, soaking up the sights and sounds and discovering new things, contributes so much to our physical and mental health and wellbeing.

"But it is easy to get sidetracked by our busy lives, and to forget all this, and to take for granted what our natural environment does for us.

"My aim at The Trill Trust is simple, to provide inspiration and opportunities that allow people to re-connect with this incredible natural environment, to learn from it and to develop a strong desire, and the knowledge, to take care of it so that it will continue to bring us the benefits that we can sometimes forget.

"Trill Farm is a wonderful classroom and I'm really keen to hear from other education providers in the area to explore ideas for potential collaboration and how we can make best use of Trill and turn the trust and the farm in to a real community asset."

Gordon says goodbye

SEATON bus driver Gordon Wilkes was given an emotional send-off by some of his passengers to mark his final journey last month (February 27th), writes KEVIN FAHEY.

Mr Wilkes has been safely picking up and delivering his passengers on the privately-owned Axe Valley Mini Travel 899 service between Sidmouth and Seaton, via Branscombe and Beer, for the past five years.

With some of the narrowest, trickiest roads in East Devon – which swell with traffic in the summer – that has been no easy job but Mr Wilkes has loved every minute of it.

"You have to be careful and patient but there is always room to pass and you have to be willing to give a bit," said Mr Wilkes.

"And I have got out and reversed a fair few cars in my time as well!"

He used to drive lorries in and around London before re-locating to Seaton where initially he drove the Seaton town bus before transferring to the popular 899 service.

"I wanted to escape the rat race and the terrible traffic and the biggest problem I get now is sheep, cows or pigs in the road!" added Mr Wilkes.

"It is a totally different environment – and the views aren't bad either."

Mr Wilkes delayed his retirement by two years – he turned 67 on March 4th – because he enjoyed his job so much and there is little doubt that he will be missed.

"Gordon is a fantastic driver and so friendly and helpful," said regular Beer user Ursula Makepeace.

"He knows all our names and is quite happy to drop customers off near their homes. He will be greatly missed."

Mrs Makepeace has been instrumental in arranging for around 100 people to sign a retirement card and organising a gift for Mr Wilkes.

"People who use the bus have been very generous which just goes to show how much they think of Gordon," she added.

Grant secures disabled access to Wetlands

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

ACCESS for the disabled to Seaton Wetlands has been secured for another 12 months thanks to a £850 grant.

East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Countryside team is delighted with the grant from Devon County Council's Locality Budget, which will pay for another year's lease of the 'Tramper', an off-road mobility scooter.

County councillor Jim Knight, who approved the grant, said: "It gives me great pleasure in supporting the Countryside team in their endeavours to make sure that people with a disability can access our lovely Seaton Wetlands, and what better way than to sponsor a tramper vehicle for the forthcoming season."

"I am confident that this off-road mobility scooter will raise the spirits and well-being of all those that take the opportunity to see the wonderful Seaton Wetlands."

The Tramper is leased from Living Options Devon, whose Countryside Mobility Scheme provides Trampers for hire across the South West.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "It allows a whole new world to open up for people with limited mobility, who may previously have been unable to accompany family or friends exploring the countryside."

"Now, thanks to the award from the Locality Budget, they will be able to enjoy the path-

GRIZZLY SPIRIT

AN ELECTED Seaton town councillor and a town council official adopted the Grizzly spirit by running the event's cub run.

Seaton town clerk Chris Drake and town councillor Sharon Bruce lined up for the annual showpiece on Sunday, March 1st.

Sharon said: "I decided to take part as I turn 50 this year. My preparations included regular walking my dogs and eating porridge."

"Chris was amazing and supportive, and I hope he does it again as he patiently stayed with me from the beginning to the finish."

"The Grizzly is one of the best annual events for Seaton. The nine-mile run was tough but I enjoyed the care and support of Chris, my family and friends and all those that called out 'Sharon' as I passed them – thank you."

Her official time was 2:18:17, Mr Drake finishing in 2:18:19.

Teen crash driver 'extremely lucky'

A SEATON teenager has been deemed "extremely lucky" to have escaped a car accident with a minor head injury.

Police are appealing for witnesses to the accident, which happened at about 10:15am on Thursday, March 5th on the A3052 between Rousdon and Lyme Regis.

PC Steve Speariett said: "A Totota Aygo, being driven from Lyme Regis to Seaton, had to swerve to avoid a white van travelling in the opposite direction. The Toyota then collided with a telegraph pole breaking it in half and came to a rest on its roof."

"The driver, an 18-year-old woman from Seaton was extremely lucky in that she only sustained a minor injury to her head."

"We would like to hear from anybody who witnessed the collision, especially if you saw a white van in the area at the time. If you do have any information please call 101 quoting log number 230 05/03/15."

Canine hospital visits a big hit

■ A DOG has become an instant hit with patients at Seaton Hospital.

Former guide dog Tuppence visits the wards every Wednesday morning as part of an initiative by a charity called Pets As Therapy (PAT).

Tuppence's owner, Brian Vaughton, explained: "The Axminster Hospital patients who have been transferred to Seaton Hospital have gained at least one important bonus.

"There is a weekly visitor who is currently proving a major talking point on all the wards.

"Indeed, the Seaton nurses have designed a special poster to advise all new in-patients that they might well meet a special visitor to aid their recovery.

"Tuppence originally worked as a guide dog for the blind until she had to be withdrawn due to problems arising with the blind lady she was looking after.

"Tuppence was awaiting rehoming when, very fortunately, our paths met about two years ago she became a PAT dog.

"Apart from Seaton Hospital we go to Bymead Residential Home, Charmouth, plus a few special home visits – and we also do the odd talk to primary schools."

Mr Vaughton is an assessor for PAT, and added: "There is a great lack of active PAT dogs in this area compared with other regions of the country."

Man dies on coast path

EMERGENCY crews were unable to resuscitate a man after he collapsed on the coast path between Lyme Regis and Seaton.

Coastguards, police and ambulance crews were called to the coast path above Charton Bay, near the old pumping station at the Rousdon landslip, at about 2:20pm on Friday following reports of a man who had collapsed.

Lyme Regis lifeboat also attended following reports of a body on the beach but, on arrival, found the body to be on the cliffs above.

Two crew members went ashore to assist in the rescue attempt.

The man was found beside the path unconscious and not breathing.

Members of Beer Coastguards, the police and paramedics gave the man CPR until the Hazardous Area Response Team arrived to continue treatment, but the man was pronounced dead at the scene.

A spokesperson for Beer Coastguards said: "Despite everybody's best efforts the casualty could not be resuscitated.

"Our thoughts are with his family and friends at this difficult time."

A total of 11 coastguards, five police officers, seven ambulance personnel, Lyme Regis lifeboat crew and the coastguard helicopter attended the scene.

Fun and laughter at Honiton pantomime

THIS was my first visit to The Beehive in Honiton, having heard good things about both the venue and Honiton Pantomime Society.

I wasn't disappointed on either front and was treated to an excellent night of entertainment in a really lovely modern venue.

'Sleeping Beauty', staged in the Joanna Leach Hall, had set and effects built entirely in-house which were very impressive.

They created a wonderfully large space for the young exuberant chorus to sing and dance their way through two hours of fun and laughter.

The opening number 'Tonight's Gonna Be A Good Night' was a true reflection of what was to come.

In dazzling costumes we were taken

REVIEW by NICKY SWEETLAND HONITON PANTOMIME SOCIETY 'Sleeping Beauty' Sat 21st Feb

through the story of 'Sleeping Beauty'. A hilarious script by Ben Crocker, performed with a very high level of professionalism, made for a very slick and polished show all round.

Teenager Chloe Pottinger led the cast as the beautiful princess Aurora and lived up to her name.

With a sublime rendition of Disney's 'I

See The Light' Pottinger showed her prowess as a very talented performer. Supported by Abi Jennings as Prince Orlando, the two cut a dash as the star crossed lovers.

Although a relatively small role, Jennings left her mark and showed some lovely comedic qualities in her clashes with the Evil Carabosse, Shaun Bonetta.

Bonetta commanded the stage and revelled in every boo and hiss the Saturday night audience threw at him.

His melodic moggie side kicks, Amelia Hibbert and Tracey Bonetta were so cool and sassy, and their interactions with the sweet palace kitties Sarah Pottinger and Jaime Crudge were delightful.

This was a cast filled with talent and a very high standard of singing.

Particular mention should go to Beth Hibbert as the fairy, Peaceful. Beth has a lovely voice and with fabulous support from her band of fairies – Zoe Kidson, Jaron Bonetta and Charlie Craig – helped to keep the show at a good pace.

Jaron's 'I Am A J20 Drinker' was gorgeous, showing he's definitely a star of the future.

The majestic Nick Bussian as King Norbert along with Queen Dorothy (Jeff Hutchinson) and Billy (Lou Pottinger) provided much of the comic content, most notably in a very well rehearsed slapstick cake baking scene which was side-splitting.

The only negative was that at times the sound was a little too quiet, particularly when characters moved further back and away from the front of stage microphones.

The cast were ably supported by an excellent four piece live band lead by Ian Crew.

Director Alex Jackson is to be congratulated on an outstanding pantomime.

Local firms team up for Red Nose Day event

THE Garden Shop in Colyton teamed up with Snows Toyota of Honiton to host a day of fundraising activities for Comic Relief. The early Red Nose Day event included a popular car wash, with staff from Snows kept busy with their buckets and sponges all day. There was also live music from Harmony and Stone Fox, a hog roast, cake stalls, a raffle and other activities to keep the whole community entertained. Colyton Caterpillars Pre-School held a chocolate tombola while Icing Occasions helped children decorate their own cupcakes. Staff from the Garden Shop were also busy serving in their cafe, with £1 from every cup of coffee sold going towards the cause thanks to Carwardines Coffee. The event raised an estimated £1,000 for Comic Relief. Sue Brown from the Garden Shop said: "Thank you to everybody for supporting us - all the staff who worked for free and donated their tips, all our suppliers who donated and everybody who attended. We were stunned by everybody's generosity." Pictured above, staff from Snows Toyota and the Garden Shop and, right, a drumming group provided entertainment.

Local firemen offer top safety tips to Honiton WI members

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

HONITON EVENING

NEARLY 30 members welcomed one new member and one visitor to the February meeting of Honiton Evening WI in the presence of three firemen from the Devon & Somerset Fire & Rescue Service.

Rob Petrie was accompanied by Chris Jenkins and Ed Lidster to talk about fire prevention. Members heard of the many and varied circumstances that cause fires in the home, nearly all of which are down to human error. For example, faulty wiring, chimneys not cleaned regularly, cigarettes and candles left unattended. But, possibly not surprising, the fires in our houses that top the list start in the kitchen.

The group held a fire-related competition with the theme "something made from matches". This was won by Jean Donald with a perfect wood-framed and fabric miniature deckchair.

Nationally, the WI celebrates its centenary this year. One of the many events being held is a baton being passed round the 69 federations throughout England, Wales and The Islands, spending one week with each. The journey started in January 2014 and will end on June 4th at the annual meeting in the Royal Albert Hall, London. The WI in Cornwall passed the baton to Devon at the Tamar Bridge on February 24th and Honiton WI members will have the opportunity to attend baton events in Sidmouth and Exeter before Devon hands it to Somerset Federation on March 3rd.

During March, extra Honiton Evening WI events will be an evening friendly skittles match, and one member is forming a crochet group to be held in her home once a month.

The next meeting in the Methodist Chapel will be at 7.15pm on March 17th when Derek March will talk about the secrets of a walled garden. The members' competition will be a miniature scarecrow. Visitors are always welcome.

New committee needed for produce association

IT is hoped that a new committee can be formed to take a village association forward.

The Combpynne-Rousdon Produce Association has been in existence for over 60 years in various forms, but last year the annual flower and produce show was cancelled due to lack of support.

On Thursday, March 19th the association will hold its annual general meeting, open to all, in Peek Hall, Rousdon, at 7.30pm. It is hoped that a new committee can be formed to take the show and the association forward once again.

East Devon dresses up for World Book Day

CHILDREN from across East Devon celebrated World Book Day by ditching their school uniform and dressing up as their favourite book characters on Thursday. From superheroes to princesses, animals to witches and wizards, the children used their imagination to come up with a wide variety of colourful costumes. World Book Day is marked across 100 countries and encourages reading amongst young children. Pictured here are (clockwise from top left) Littleton, Colyton Axminster Community and Upottery primary schools in costume.

'It felt like a luxury pamper treatment'

OUR SALES EXECUTIVE PUTS AXMINSTER ANTI-AGEING CLINIC TO THE TEST

ON hearing about the benefits of anti-ageing treatments available at the Axminster clinic, one of the Pulman's sales executives decided to put it to the test and be a model for the treatments. She has been delighted with the results after receiving Pellevé and Botox injections.

The Axminster clinic was established in 1998 with Dr Rita Rakus – dubbed the Lip Queen of London by the media for her excellent lip treatments – visiting from her established Knightsbridge clinic every four to six weeks. It has since developed into a very popular service, with highly trained doctors from the London clinic regularly bringing their skills and expertise to the East Devon area.

Women who feel nervous about receiving such treatments need not worry, as our model was completely put at ease when arriving at the Axminster clinic, receiving a friendly welcome from Janis Meeks and the team.

An informal chat followed to discuss her personal problem areas before being given a full briefing by a doctor from the Knightsbridge clinic on the suitable treatments available and what to expect – she was talked through the entire process.

The treatments started with Pellevé which introduces heat to the skin, therefore, shrinking collagen and stimulating cells at the bottom of the skin for a tighter, younger and fresh appearance. The treatment has been described as a "less intensive and more comfortable version of Thermage", with our model saying it felt like a spa treatment.

"It felt lovely. It was a nice, warm feeling and felt like my skin was tightening straight away," she added.

The results of the Pellevé could be seen instantly and were then further enhanced with Botox injections around the forehead and eyes.

The doctor explained that having Pellevé and Botox at the same time gave the best results, as the Botox stops the muscles moving and allows the heat treatment to stimulate skin cells as needed. However, she put her patient's mind at rest by assuring that the amount of Botox used is dependent on the individual's needs and it no longer freezes the face as seen in previous years.

The Botox injections were completed quickly using tiny needles and our model said it was much less painful than expected and "just felt like a small scratch".

'Positive and enjoyable'

After seeing the full effects a few weeks after her treatments, she added: "I'm both surprised and delighted at how well the treatments have worked, my laughter lines have reduced dramatically and the skin is much tighter and smoother around my eyes."

"The Pellevé felt like a luxury pamper treatment you would receive at a spa day rather than a procedure. I must admit, I was a little worried about having Botox injections, as I'm not brave when it comes to needles, but after the application of some numbing cream around the area to be injected, I can honestly say the experience was pain free."

"My experience as a whole was very positive and enjoyable. Everyone was very friendly and explained my procedures and after-care both professionally and comprehensively. Thank you very much to you all and I look forward to seeing you soon!"

Shetland rescue centre receives charity status

■ EQUINE CARE: Munchkins founder Tammy Marx and volunteers with one of their ponies

MUNCHKINS Miniature Shetland Rescue, based in Southleigh, near Colyton, has recently been awarded charity status.

Founder Tammy Marx and her volunteers have said they are delighted to have received official charity status, which will assist them in raising funds to look after the ponies.

Munchkins was set up in June last year with just four ponies but has quickly expanded and now has 19, including two pregnant mares. They all have varied backgrounds and have either been abandoned, abused, neglected or are in need of a new home, with some arriving at the rescue centre in a very poor condition.

The ponies get checked over by the vet, giving them vaccinations, checking their teeth and treating them for worms, which can result in expensive bills so they are keen to boost their fundraising efforts.

Collection boxes have been placed in shops around Colyton and at Mole

Avon in Axminster, and the staff will be holding a collection and raffle at Tesco in Seaton on Good Friday.

They are also keen to get local pre-schools, schools and organisations involved, having recently been visited by Colyton Caterpillars and with a visit from Colyton Brownies planned for after Easter. The ponies can also visit pre-schools, nurseries or local fetes for a donation.

Munchkins is now offering the chance to sponsor a pony, which could make a great gift for Mother's Day or Easter. The rescue centre is also looking for more volunteers to give general pony care, not just beneficial for the ponies but has also proved to be a calming experience for those suffering from depression and mental illnesses.

For more information about Munchkins Miniature Shetland Rescue, visit the website www.mini-munchkins.org or to get in touch phone 01297 553829 or email munchkinsshetlandrescue@hotmail.com

Coping with Bereavement

The death of a loved one can be devastating. Bereavement counsellor Sarah Smith describes some of the feelings that can arise from losing someone, and where you can go for help and support.

Bereavement affects people in different ways. There's no right or wrong way to feel. "You might feel a lot of emotions at once, or feel you're having a good day, then you wake up and feel worse again," says Sarah, who works at Trinity Hospice in London. She says powerful feelings can come unexpectedly. "It's like waves on a beach. You can be standing in water up to your knees and feel you can cope, then suddenly a big wave comes and knocks you off your feet."

Experts generally accept that there are four stages of bereavement:

- accepting that your loss is real
- experiencing the pain of grief
- adjusting to life without the person who has died
- putting less emotional energy into grieving and putting it into something new (in other words, moving on)

You'll probably go through all these stages, but you won't necessarily move smoothly from one to the next. Your grief might feel chaotic and out of control, but these feelings will eventually become less intense. Give yourself time, as they will pass. You might feel:

- shock and numbness (this is usually the first reaction to the death, and people often speak of being in a daze)
- overwhelming sadness, with lots of crying
- tiredness or exhaustion
- anger, for example towards the person who died, their illness or God
- guilt, for example guilt about feeling angry, about something you said or didn't say, or about not being able to stop your loved one dying

"These feelings are all perfectly normal," says Sarah. "The negative feelings don't make you a bad person. Lots of people feel guilty about their anger, but it's OK to be angry and to question why."

She adds that some people become forgetful and less able to concentrate. You might lose things, such as your keys. This is because your mind is distracted by bereavement and grief, says Sarah. You're not losing your sanity.

The GOV.UK website has information on what to do after someone dies, such as registering the death and planning a funeral.

Michelle Hague Hypnotherapy

Grief and loss

MOST people grieve when they lose something or someone important to them. Grieving for the loss can feel unbearable, and it may often feel that you are alone.

How does grief make you feel?

The way grief affects you will be unique to you and depends on many things, such as the nature of the loss, your age, your relationships, and your health.

You can react in many ways to a loss. For many people grief consists of several combined emotions, anxiety and helplessness often come first. Anger is common, and is seen as a natural part of the grieving process, and you shouldn't feel guilty about it then sadness, which for many comes much later.

Being aware that these emotions are common can help you to accept them. It is very important to know that they will pass. Everyone is unique some people take a lot longer than others to adjust and it is important to recognize that while many may understand they do not know what you are feeling or going through, only you do.

Dealing with the emotions

Grief requires a period of adjustment, there is no right or wrong time to adjust, try to be patient.

If you find that after time you are not moving on, eighteen months or longer after a major loss, there are some practical things you can do to help get through the loss:

Talking is often a good way to soothe painful emotions. Talking to a friend, family member, health professional or therapist can help you begin the healing process.

Give yourself permission and allow yourself to feel sad. It's a healthy part of the grieving process.

Sleep, the lack of proper rest can make you very tired. If you're having trouble sleeping, Hypnotherapy can help.

Avoid things that appear to take away the pain, such as alcohol. It will make you feel worse in the long run and is addictive.

Michelle Hague is a professional clinical and cognitive behavioural hypnotherapist and includes working with mindfulness, and may be able to help. Call her on 07761773563

East Devon Cats Protection

THE East Devon Branch of Cats Protection covers a very wide area of Devon, totaling about 400 square miles.

We take in and re home cats and kittens who are strays or are unwanted and/or abandoned.

We have foster homes in or near Ottery St Mary, Seaton, Axminster and Exeter where the cats are cared for and prepared for re homing.

One of the many advantages of adopting a cat from Cats Protection is that it will be microchipped.

Every day there are reports of cats going missing and others being found that have not been chipped.

Last December we were contacted by someone who had seen a cat hunting rabbits on their land for many months. They were able to confine the cat and we checked him for a microchip and yes, he was a cat who had been missing for more than a year from a village nearby!

If that cat had not been chipped we would have been very lucky to find his owners, however with the chip they were just a phone call away.

So please – if you find a cat get it checked for a microchip. If you own a cat get it microchipped and if you lose a cat call your local Branch of Cats Protection.

If you have lost or found a cat please call 01297 21610

Honiton Cats Protection

PETS can't manage without vets and Honiton Cats Protection can't manage without the fantastic support from Honiton vets, who micro-chip the cats and kittens rehomed by the charity. This is important to reunite cats and owners.

'Tigger' arrived as a stray at Otter Brewery in Luppit – a good place to stray to! He is very friendly, so someone has loved him but, without a micro-chip all we can do is hope someone sees him advertised. If he is unclaimed after two weeks then he will be looking for a new home.

The importance of micro-chips is also shown by Shadow. This lovely young man was not handed in as a stray but following bereavement, however, three separate families telephoned believing him to be their missing black cat – none of these cats were micro-chipped. Sadly no-one has yet offered Shadow a new home but, fingers crossed!

It is lovely to match a cat back to their home and a micro-chip – with details kept up to date – makes this easy. If you love your cat speak to your vet about a micro-chip and let him find a way to come home.

To offer a new home to a cat – who will already be micro-chipped – call Honiton Cats Protection on 01404 45241, visit the shop in the High Street or go on-line www.honiton.cats.org.uk

Homes4Hounds

Good news for all dog lovers

THIS is Homes4Hounds Devon's 10th year in business. As a great alternative to kennels, we are going stronger than ever.

Our success is due largely to the fact that we have a fantastic team of experienced people who take dogs into their own homes. They have all owned dogs themselves in the past, have a wealth of experience in looking after them and, most importantly, they give them lots of love and personal attention, which is not really possible in kennels.

Of course, you can always arrange for a neighbour or a friend to look after your precious one, but what happens when they let you down at the last minute? Much better to contact Homes4Hounds at the outset and have a cosy, friendly and safe place guaranteed for your dog, so that you can make your own holiday plans with complete peace of mind.

As news of our unique service is spreading, we acquire more and more clients, but a good number of our bookings are made up of repeat business. The thank-you notes we receive from our clients are always very gratifying. They have told us that we "provide a brilliant service which is second to none", are "truly heaven-sent" and that "they would be totally lost without Homes4Hounds".

People with rescue dogs certainly appreciate the fact that they have in us an alternative to kennels, because being placed with a couple or a family makes their pets feel loved and wanted, as Homes4Hounds carers ensure that continuity of care and routine is provided.

Over the years, we have looked after many kinds of dogs - from the very small to the very large, from the younger to the older ones, from the very fit and lively to those who can't jump about much any more. They all get the same love and attention.

By the way, we never mix dogs from different households; the only time our carers have more than one dog, is when they come from the same family.

We would love to introduce our service to you too. For a free information pack contact Alan or Irene at Homes4Hounds Devon. Call 01404 871465 or e-mail: homes4houndsdevon@yahoo.co.uk or visit website: www.homes4hounds.co.uk

East Devon Sports Therapy is extremely proud and excited to announce that they now offer even better rehabilitation using their new Alter-G anti-gravity treadmill. This is a NASA designed and patented piece of equipment allowing clients to start partial weight bearing exercise a lot quicker than conventional methods. The device can take your body weight down to 20% of its norm allowing knee replacements, ankle sprains, arthritis, muscle strains and many more ailments to exercise pain free with minimal impact to the joints, enhancing and speeding your recovery and well being to the max.

RS Footscan

This system offers analysis of walking and/or running over our footscan mat with over 4000 sensors embedded into it to gain in depth analysis of your foot positions, pressure and force distributed during the motion, in both 2D and 3D. The advanced software allows automatic division of the foot into specific regions.

This allows force and pressure distribution within these areas to be analysed and associated with certain foot mechanics and functions. Force & pressure distribution in all regions of the foot can be analysed in graphical format, allowing insight into force & pressure in both localised and general areas under the foot during the stance phase. Once this information is achieved we are able to prescribe custom made orthotics to suit your individual needs.

Moratorium should be imposed on further development of Axminster

■ THERE has been comment recently about the lack of a Local Area Plan being produced by East Devon District Council.

This important plan, which has been under consideration for some time, has now been further delayed until after the local elections in May. One can only surmise why this further delay has been imposed, but it is something that voters may wish to ponder upon before they cast their votes for Councillors in May.

Until this important document is published no cohesive plan exists for most areas of East Devon – therefore any number of planning applications for housing can be made and will be considered individually by the council's Development Management Committee.

A number of "small" planning applications can soon have a marked effect on a small town such as Axminster.

At the moment the local authority appears to give planning permission willy-nilly to each developer that comes along with little thought to increasing the facilities within the town to support the increased population, although the income from council tax on these properties is without doubt a great attraction to EDDC.

I have noticed in last week's local press that three planning applications have been submitted to EDDC by Persimmon Homes Ltd. for large developments on the edge of Axminster, one on Lyme Road (75 houses EDDC ref 15/0442/MOUT), and two on the eastern side of town near Millwey Rise. In fact, these two applications for 200 dwellings at Beulah Farm (ref 15/0436/MOUT) and 155 dwellings at Wycroft Manor Farm (ref 15/0435/MOUT) actually join onto each-other and would presumably make one 355 home estate.

So, a further 430 homes are likely to be added to the recent developments at Sector Lane, Streamside, Cloakham Lawn and Millbrook Meadows with an additional 1,000 residents coming into the town. If anyone would like to make a comment to EDDC on these additional developments please quote the individual reference number, but be quick, the two-week public consultation process closes on 13 March!

Are we going to see an increase in the provision of basic service infrastructure in the town to cope with the growing population? Who knows – but if the Local Plan was in place this would show the requirement to expand GP and dentist services, hospital and school places, etc. to cope with a set number of new homes in the town.

As we all know our hospital, with its limited facilities, is still threatened with closure – but there is a good case with the growing population not only to keep this open but to also increase the facilities that can be provided there.

There is the possibility of the council agreeing to any number of "small" developments through the planning process before the area plan is published after May which will have a marked effect on our town.

I would suggest to Councillor Paul Diviani and the councillors of EDDC that a moratorium should be imposed on the consideration of any further planning applications from developers until the Local Plan has been agreed. If equitable treatment is not provided across the board in planning matters by the council then I trust that voters in May will vote to elect councillors who are prepared to run the council in a more open and democratic manner.

Axminster

Thank you for supporting Grizzly

■ A BIG thank you to the people of Seaton, particularly our town centre shops and businesses and sponsors - Bevis and Beckingsale, Amore and Frydays, Seaton Town Council, GW Electrics and Tandoori Tonight - who all got behind our fifth GrizFest, what a fantastic community weekend!

We have had lots of positive feedback from our Grizzly visitors who really loved the welcome, the activities in the library, Go Create, the Artisan Market and The Gateway hosted by Seaton's Voice. They loved the fact that we painted the town lilac. Congratulations to the winners of the best decorated Grizzly shop window - 1st Just Flowers, 2nd Animal Botanical and 3rd Steve's Print - and a big thank you to all

The Ingenious Gentleman Don Quixote of La Mancha

Winner of the Stage Award and labelled as 'Edinburgh Festival 2014: The shows you can't live without' in The Guardian, Little Soldier presents their hilarious, witty and wonderfully wicked adaptation of Spanish novel The Ingenious Gentleman Don Quixote of La Mancha at the Marine Theatre on Thursday, March 12th.

Inspired by Don Quixote's wanderings, two feisty señoritas and a downtrodden Englishman embark on a journey through Spain taking on one of the most accomplished works of fiction ever written. Accompanied only by an otherworldly virtuoso guitarist whose presence there makes no sense whatsoever, they will lead you to joy, pain and ultimate wisdom. A madcap rendition concluding with a common sentiment: "These guys did not read the book".

Internationally acclaimed theatre company Little Soldier are fast becoming recognised in the UK and Europe for their highly skilled combination of physical comedy, devising techniques and live music to produce funny yet touching shows.

Expect a hilariously inventive adventure of immense proportions, to be taken with a pinch of salt and a handlebar moustache.

The performance starts at 8pm. Tickets £12 or £10. To book call 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

Axminster Drama Club celebrates its 70th birthday

AXMINSTER Drama Club was formed on March 19th 1945 so is this year celebrating its 70th birthday. The club's first production was Hayfever in 1945 and 1968 saw the club's first pantomime Aladdin. Since then the club has produced a pantomime as well as a play or musical show pretty much every year.

In July 1992 the club purchased the Plaza (formerly the old Shand Factory Social Club) behind The Guildhall, which was formerly regarded as one of the best dance halls in East Devon and was well used during the war by visiting service personnel and locals. As well as housing a clubroom, which doubles up as a rehearsal space, The Plaza is now home to literally thousands of costumes made, altered and reused and hundreds of pieces of scenery and props, which have a habit of being recycled and reappearing as something completely different.

Over the years a great many Axminster residents both young and old have had their first experience of appearing on stage as well as being well entertained thanks to the club. To celebrate their birthday Axminster Drama Club would like to thank all its loyal supporters by offering a unique evening of entertainment, free of charge, as well as inviting back its past members and giving them an opportunity to reminisce via the clubs old scrap books and display of past shows.

The ADC Birthday Bash will take place on Saturday 21st March at 7:30pm in the Guildhall when current members of the club will be performing a variety of singing, dancing and acting as well as the cutting of an enormous cake! Free tickets for the night can be reserved by phoning current Chairman Sara Leat on 01297 35187 or emailing Norriet@aol.com.

The Hut People

TAKING the audience on a musical journey around the World, English instrumental duo The Hut People have over the last 3 years proved to be one of THE most unique, entertaining and best-loved acts on the UK folk scene today.

Mixing global rhythms with folk tunes from Quebec to Spain, Scandinavia to Sussex and everywhere in between, this is a quirky celebration of our rich musical heritage – and it works so well!

This is a show like nothing you've ever seen before – expect feel-good dancing tunes, audience participation, step dancing, Quebecois foot-percussion (whilst playing the accordion!) and humour aplenty.

Accordianist Sam Pirt & Percussionist Gary Hammond both have extensive backgrounds in music - having been part of and performed alongside legendary acts such as The Beautiful South, Nina Simone, The Dubliners & Sharon Shannon, their playing is still very much in high demand.

The Hut People perform at The Beehive, Honiton on Saturday, March 14th. See the advert below for more details.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

ROOTS TO HEALTH

Modern Herbal Medicine

Roots To Health is a local complementary consultancy, advice and prescription practice run by qualified medical herbalist Jayne Palmer.

Herbal medicine, or Phytotherapy, is a science in its own right, based on modern scientific research. It's the world's oldest and most widely-used form of medicine and uses plant extracts to treat common health complaints such as raised blood pressure, headaches, stress and indigestion.

Jayne has a BSc in Phytotherapy. She spent many years working in local health food stores as a herbal advisor, then decided to work within a conventional medical role as healthcare assistant at Honiton Surgery, in order to gain the benefits of both fields of medicine.

Last year, she decided to set up her own clinic, which she now offers at the Health and Wellbeing Centre in Axminster on Mondays and at the Chiropractic Health Centre in Honiton on Saturdays. Jayne explains: "Herbs can be used to treat the body in many different ways and, combined properly, will work effectively as medication for a large range of diseases. We are all unique and will respond to herbs differently. As a herbalist, I'm trained in the same diagnostic skills as orthodox doctors and choose herbs specifically for each individual. I search for, and treat, the underlying cause of the problem, rather than just the symptom, to restore the body's balance and activate its own healing powers."

"I believe that conservation is vitally important and use organically-grown plants wherever possible. Similarly, I try and source locally-grown plants to treat local ailments and actively promote sustainable prescribing of herbal medicines."

New High-Spec And Sport Models

FORD Motor Company at the 2015 Geneva Motor Show extended its line-up of vehicles to reveal new sporty, dynamic and high specification vehicles for Europe.

The all-new Ford Edge Sport makes its European motor show debut and Ford is showing the all-new S-MAX Titanium Sport, and European reveal of all-new Mondeo Titanium X, which has been available in the UK since launch. Also revealed are the EcoSport S, and new two-tone Focus Red and Black Editions, alongside the high-specification Kuga Titanium X Sport.

These models line up alongside the all-new Focus RS, which yesterday made its world-wide motor show debut, and the all-new Ford GT supercar, which Ford premiered in Europe. The Focus RS and the Ford GT are developed by the new Ford Performance team, which is committed to delivering 12 new performance vehicles through 2020.

"Ford at Geneva is presenting a mouth-watering line-up of vehicles that underlines our commitment to innovation through performance," said Jim Farley, Ford Motor Company executive vice president and president Europe, Middle East and Africa. "It is through developing our performance cars that technologies become available through the wider range of Ford cars.

"We are also investing heavily in areas that will drive the Ford brand forwards in Europe, including SUVs, and Vignale, as well as sport models," Farley added. "Ford will have the broadest possible line-up to provide solutions for every customer from mass to niche."

Further vehicles on display in Geneva include the new Focus ST that is available for the first time with a choice of petrol and diesel engines, the acclaimed Fiesta ST, and the new Ford Mustang – now on sale across Europe for the first time in more than 50 years of production.

All-new Edge Sport

The upscale all-new Edge utility vehicle will later this year extend the European line-up of Ford SUVs that includes the medium-sized Kuga and compact EcoSport. Refined and spacious, the Edge SUV will offer several advanced new technologies.

These include Ford Adaptive Steering, which optimises the steering response and makes Edge easier to manoeuvre by continually changing the steering ratio according to vehicle speed; Active Noise Cancellation, which directs sound waves through the audio system to enhance the overall engine sound and cabin ambiance; and Front Split View Camera, which makes restricted visibility junctions or parking spaces easier to negotiate.

Seat Unveils Its Future With The 20v20

SEAT has its eyes firmly set on the year 2020. The Spanish carmaker revealed its strategic vision for the future in Geneva today with the 20V20 showcar (meaning Vision 2020), an SUV that sets the stage for the brand's future and puts forward the new design language. "The 20V20 shows our ambition", said SEAT President Jürgen Stackmann today during the company's presentation at the Geneva Motor Show. "It is our guiding star and the lighthouse for our development for the coming five-year period".

Stackmann emphasised that "SEAT will be applying the winning Leon product formula to the entire range. We've taken all product decisions to consolidate the successful path started with LEON and we have finalised our product plan for the coming years. SEAT will shift focus from the small car to the compact car category. The centre of gravity shifts upwards entering big, fast growing and more profitable segments". In addition, Stackmann reaffirmed the brand's commitment to enhancing connectivity, which is backed by the agreement announced yesterday with SAMSUNG.

The President of SEAT also announced that the brand continues having a positive momentum in the first two months of the year compared to the same period in 2014: "To date, our global sales have grown 7.5%". Stackmann underscored that in 2014 SEAT sales improved by more than 10% for the second consecutive year and placed emphasis on the big EU markets, including Germany, Spain, the United Kingdom and Italy, where the brand displayed double-digit growth.

The success of the Leon family explains the brand's surge in sales. "For the first time in our history we have sold more Leon than Ibiza. The Leon family is now complete", summarised Stackmann, who announced the world premiere of SEAT's first compact SUV at next year's Geneva Motor Show.

20V20, SEAT's strategic vision

The SEAT 20V20 combines the dynamic silhouette of a four-door sports coupé with the refinement of an SUV and the versatility and utility of a mid-size estate car. At a length of 4,659 metres and with its 20-inch wheels and the determined expression conveyed by its adaptive full-LED headlamps, this sports utility has a robust stance that is in no way aggressive, while the interior offers a generous amount of space and premium ambience for five. In addition, a comprehensive package of driver assistance systems raises the levels of comfort and safety even further. The array of drive options is multi-faceted, ranging from the high-performance TSI and TDI motors to plug-in hybrids. The power is delivered to the wheels via the DSG transmission and electronically controlled all-wheel drive.

New Toledo FR Line, sportier and more versatile

The SEAT Toledo FR Line is another attraction presented by the Spanish brand at the Geneva Motor Show. The Toledo is now even sportier with its exclusive FR Line version, which offers an exclusive combination of sporty design and versatility at an exceptional price. Equipped with TSI and TDI engines with displacements ranging from 1.2 to 1.6 litres and full LED headlights that are unique in this segment, the new SEAT Toledo FR Line underscores its dynamic character with additional sills and a newly designed, powerful front end featuring more distinctive air intakes. With its 17-inch wheels painted in titanium grey, the Toledo FR Line has an even more masculine stance. A tinted rear windscreen and rear-side windows add emphasis to its taut lines. Its distinctive appearance is rounded off by exterior mirror casings painted in titanium grey, LED rear lights, fog lamps and FR logos front and back.

The Leon ST CUPRA completes the sportiest line-up

SEAT is also showcasing the new Leon ST CUPRA to the public in Geneva, which joins the three and five-door versions. The family sized estate version of SEAT's sportiest model is a unique combination of top performance, style and utility. The Leon ST CUPRA 280 accelerates from 0 to 100 km/h in just 6.0 seconds and features a maximum load space of 1,470 litres. The new Leon ST CUPRA is a consistent winner in terms of design, road manners and excellent value-for-money, and is the perfect sports car for all aspects of life, from work and family, to sports and hobbies.

Local football round-up

Honiton Town surge four points clear

Axminster in penalty lottery, Seaton stun high-flying Heavitree

SOUTH-WEST PENINSULA LGE
BRIXHAM AFC 0 SIDMOUTH TOWN 1
SIDMOUTH had to be well organised and disciplined against their well-drilled South Devon rivals.

The Blues had the lion's share of the possession in the first half which saw the Vikings having to change formation inside the first 20 minutes to deal with the industrious home-side's midfield.

Cameron Vere was moved into the Vikings' midfield to provide some presence alongside Aaron Doble and Jordan Cooper as the first-half ended goalless.

The second half saw Sidmouth raise their game, particularly winger Mark Pavey who caused Brixham all kinds of problems, the only way they felt they could stop the Vikings top scorer was to foul him - this plan would later be their undoing.

On the hour mark Sidmouth went close when Vere chipped the home goal keeper and just as the ball was to cross the goal line it was headed onto the cross bar and out for a corner by a terrific recovery from a Brixham defender.

In the 70th minute Vere picked up the ball 30 yards out, jinked passed two defenders and found Pavey who was hauled down inside the area.

Captain Doble smashed home the resulting spot-kick to clinch the win.

Axminster Town 1 Alphington 1 (at Alphington)

AXMINSTER TOWN extended their unbeaten run to three matches but the really story from Saturday's game was referee Tim Docherty who, on his SWP league debut, awarded three penalties but possibly missed two clearer ones!

"It was bizarre, there wasn't really a bad tackle in the whole game," said Tigers' joint-manager Keith Somers.

"It's sad, we should be talking about a great game but the match was all about the referee, a late replacement for the original one who was taken ill, taking centre-stage."

Axminster took a 1-0 lead into the interval when Sam Dibbling put the afterburners on to leave his marker for dead before firing home from all of 30 yards.

Both teams were then awarded, and missed, a penalty apiece with Ax keeper Brett Garner pulling off a great stop to keep out the Alphas' effort and Dibbling squandering the Tigers' opportunity.

Somers then felt his side were then denied two more spot kicks after fouls on Alex Wheatley who was booked for diving after one of the incidents.

Alphington equalised in the 80th minute when they were awarded the third penalty - a decision which mystified both benches: "The ball clearly struck our defender Kingsley Wellman on the back!" said Somers who picked out Leigh Beer and Mike Knight as his star performers.

◆ THE TIGERS' Axminster Hospital Cup quarter-final tie with Lyme Regis is to be played at Davey Fort Ground on Sunday, March 15th (2pm ko).

D&E LEAGUE REPORTS

Feniton 2 Beer Albion 1

Premier Division

BEER Albion visited local rivals Feniton on Saturday and were a bit unlucky to go down 2-1 in a close, hardfought encounter.

The Fishermen were without striker James Melville and full-back Andrew Foster but after last week's issues it was good to see a full substitutes' bench.

Feniton started strongly and only some poor finishing kept Albion on level terms.

Fenny continued to dominate possession but Beer were well-marshalled by skipper Ollie Morgan.

after a mazy run.

The Fishermen responded well and deservedly equalised on 61 minutes when a long throw from Josh Harrison was flicked on at the near post by Jacob Clode to Richard Walker who created enough space to toe-poke a shot wide of the Fenny keeper.

The Fishermen went close to taking the lead through Clode with a clever lob and then Sam Phillips hit the crossbar with a great effort.

The game was now end-to-end and in the 82nd minute Norman scored the winner after the Beer defence were caught for square.

Beer's next home game at the Furzebrake is on Saturday when they entertain Willand Rovers Reserves in the D & E Premier - Kick off is at 3pm and the Match sponsor will be Osborne's Coffee and Wine Bar, Fore Street, Beer.

Chagford 3 Axminster Res 1

Division Three

AXMINSTER arrived at one of the most beautiful settings that D & E football provides with one of their youngest squads for a long time.

The Tigers, with five in midfield proved hard to break down for in-form Chagford and it was not until the 40th minute that Ax conceded a rather sloppy goal.

After the break Axminster conceded a very quick second goal. To their credit their heads did not drop and Mike Rusu got a goal back for the Tigers on the hour.

Changes were made to the line up resulting in Ax having four 16-year-olds on the field and they were all a credit to the town.

It was not until late on in the game that Ax let in the third goal, but the entire team never gave up, and temporary manager Alan Beer was delighted with the display.

Cheriton Fitzpaine 1 Offwell 2

Division Seven

OFFWELL bounced back for last week's defeat in fine style. Ashley Trudgeon headed the visitors ahead early on.

More chances came and went and they were punished when Cheriton equalised just before the break.

But Offwell weren't to be denied and Ernie Stobbs held his nerve a convert an 85th minute to seal the win.

Player-manager Scott Phillips said afterwards: "I asked for a big reaction after last week's performance and that's exactly what I got. We went at them from the start and created plenty of chances." Phillips gave MoM to keeper Ben Kayes.

Round-up with Collin Goodwin

AN slated Lapford are through to the final of the Firewatch Devon Senior cup after winning at ASHBURTON of the South Devon League 4-3 on penalties.

Lapford were a goal down in regular time but equalised through Dom Stapleton and then won it in the spot-kick shoot out.

Lapford will now face last season's beaten finalists EXWICK VILLA in an all Devon & Exeter League clash.

Villa won their semi at LANDKEY TOWN in North Devon 5-4 on penalties having also drawn 1-1 after extra time. Mark Harris had the Villa goal with Jordan Taylor getting the deciding penalty.

WHIPTON & PINHOE reached the semi finals of the Devon Intermediate cup after a fiery 4-1 extra time victory at KENTISBEARE which also captured the Stan Wilson cup as area winners.

SEATON TOWN stole the limelight in Premier after they destroyed second from top HEAVITREE UNITED 3-1. Jake Richards, Chris Wellman - who was later sent off - and Martyn Hancock scored the Seaton goals. Hancock also scored for Heavitree but was still man of the match.

Leaders TIVERTON TOWN edged their derby match at ELMORE 1-0 with Kieran Rapo getting the only goal. It was a sizzling match with both teams getting red cards, but Elmore also felt unlucky not to share the points.

CLYST VALLEY caused a major surprise in Division One as they outclassed NEWTON ST CYRES 3-0.

HONITON TOWN widened the gap at the top of Division One as they won 2-1 at EAST BUDLEIGH but it was a close call. Andy Isaac and Lewis Couch scored for the Hipsos.

The UNIVERSITY were 3-0 winners at HEAVITREE, Luke Taylor, Charlie Woodford and Roman Christoferou on target, but a Josh Dryhurst goal could not save WESTEXE ROVERS from a 4-1 defeat to ALPHINGTON.

COLYTON's hopes of winning Division Two have probably been scuppered by a 4-1 defeat at home to NEWTOWN. Mike Hammett, Steve Kerswell, Scott Foster and Luke Todd shared the Newtown goals.

Title rivals UPOTTERY were checked by a 2-2 draw at home to CULLOMPTON RANGERS.

EXMOUTH TOWN the Division Three leaders pulled away from their main rivals with a 5-0 win at THORVERTON. WOODBURY and LYME REGIS shared a 0-0.

In Division Seven PINHOE were shocked by going behind at AMORY GREEN ROVERS but picked themselves up to win the basement game 7-1.

Exciting season nears end

HONITON with Julie Grant

AS the indoor bowling season draws to an end players are hoping to reach club, county and national finals.

So far Honiton ladies have got to a national final but Trevor Pipe & Yvonne Rayner remain on course for another final as they have won the Area 31 Generation Pairs.

Within the county Scott Eveleigh has made it to the final of the Under 21s and Ann Brown, Julie Grant & Shirley Hiscocks have won through to the county triples final on March 21st.

Sue Evans narrowly missed out on the county fours final but she will contest the Champion of Champions semi-final also on March 21st at Torbay and aim to compete in the final that afternoon.

The Foxlands Trophy Inter Club ladies county league has been completed and Honiton are runners up in Division One and so win the Springham trophy which will be presented at the county luncheon on April 20th.

The last league game was a win against Plymouth gaining six valuable points and an 11 shot difference which ensured second place. Top rink was Sally Spreadsbury, Marian Vessey, Joan Heard & Sue Evans 23-14.

In the week's mixed friendlies Honiton won twice, 89-58 against Pines Gardens; top rink Joan Mackintosh, Carol Armitage, Paul Gadd & skip Mike Critchley 30-10, and 65-52 against Madeira; top rink Gloria Randall, Mike Uniacke, Ken Clarke & skip Marian Vessey. More success for Morgan HONITON'S Chris Morgan has successfully defended his British Deadlift Championship titles.

Morgan was lifting in the British Single Event Championships, held in Stafford and made lifts of 220kg followed by 250 and then 260 to win British titles in Masters 1 (40+), Open (All Age Groups) and also the Overall Best Lifter Award.

Speaking about the competition, Chris said: 'I'm absolutely delighted to have won my fifth "Best lifter" title and to have won my 17th British Championship title in my career.

'The competition was the biggest ever organised in the history of the British Drug Free Powerlifting Association with a total of 400 lifters.

'It's wonderful to see the interest in drug free lifting growing every year within the BDFPA.

'I'm now looking forward to representing England and Great Britain my 11th World Championship final'.

All change at the top as Hi Q defeat Otters

WHAT a week in the top flight – defeats for Otters and Flamigos combined with wins for Hi Q and Uplowman gave the table a new look.

Uplowman finished their season with a 30-15 victory over Flamigos, that denied Flamigos a point and put Uplowman on top of the table on goal difference.

The game had to be halted at the end of the third quarter but the result stood. Emma Burroughs was the Uplowman pick whilst Sonia Yorke took the Flamigos plaudits.

Having had a long unbeaten run, the Otters season has come of the rails recently and they went down to a 26-13 defeat at the hands of Hi Q, the win also denied Otters a point.

Hi Q got off to a thunderous start taking full advantage of Otters starting the game two players down to lead 11-

With Emma Truscott playing well they continued to dominate a now full-strength Otters who started to pull back in the final quarter thanks to good work from Carole Goddard.

The Final first division game was between the bottom two sides with Tip Top trees coming out on top 34-22.

Rachel Cavin was the Trees star whilst Tanya Broom picked up the honour for JD.

Division Two

SIGNS South west took another step towards promotion back to the first division with their 12th successive win.

For three quarters of the game it looked as though a Catherine Phillips-inspired Otter Valley would end the run as they held the lead.

But SSW pulled it back in the final quarter to win 25-20 thanks to Nicola Lane's performance.

With Otter Valley only picking up a single point, a win for Howden Hawks would move them into second place.

With Nicky Vile in good form, Howden proved too strong for Blackdown Ladies, for whom Kirsty Selway played well and their 30-12 win was enough.

Sidmouth Toucans also kept themselves in the promotion hunt thanks to their 32-16 win over A&P Pixies.

Both Anna Rowson and Louise Neilson played well for Toucans whilst Sara Pearce was the Pixies pick.

Ranks boosted by new arrivals

HONITON Cricket Club has this week secured the transfer of five new players from neighbors Feniton CC.

Firstly they welcome back former first team captain Brian Cann and player Adrian Pullin, they are joined by former Honiton Colts Jake Smith, Ben Kidson and young spin bowler William Cowley.

Honiton Chairman Andrew Lapping said: 'It's no secret that we struggled for players last year which ultimately led to both sides getting relegated.

'But we are turning things around after an ordinary couple of years and are moving things forward both on and off the field.'

'In Brian and Adrian we are getting some very experienced players who perform at a consistent level season after season.

'Both will also bring at lot of knowledge of how to win matches.

'Having coached Ben and Jake for a couple seasons I am no stranger to what they will bring to our club. Jake is a very destructive batsman - as we found out against Feniton last season!

'Ben is a very good all-rounder with plenty of potential and we have heard some positive things about William and his ability with the ball.'

'These are exciting times for our club - we will be revealing new sponsors soon and there are plenty of exciting things in the pipeline.'

CHARDSTOCK Cricket Club held their annual meeting recently writes Frank Huddy.

Club chairman Edward Eames made special mention of the sterling work carried out by Richard Parris both on the ground and behind the scenes.

As usual the chairman has been very helpful with various projects and would be carrying on in the role. In his capacity as treasurer Richard Parris reported a sound financial position that had been boosted by a generous donation by Mr & Mrs R. Carss who were then voted in as CCC Life Members.

Mr Parris also mentioned the 100 club which although running smoothly still had room for more members.

Captain Rob Hutchings said more players would be welcomed and confirmed that the team would be competing in Devon League Division D (east) which would cut down on the amount of travelling required.

A grant has also been received for badly needed new sightscreens and practice wicket. Fixtures are set to commence on April 26th. For details of practice sessions call Rob on 01460 221245.

The club's annual jumble sale and auction is scheduled for Friday, March 27th from 7pm at Chardstock Community Hall.

All welcome

Axe Valley Runners

with Dave Mutter

MANY people start running and are put off joining running clubs often because they think they are for 'fast racing snakes' only.

All of East Devon's running clubs welcome new runners of all abilities and AVR has a dedicated evening for slower runners (Friday's from 6.30 to 7.30pm meeting near the Tramway toilets) and for absolute beginners there is a group that meet on Thursday mornings 9.30am at the same location.

Robert Kerr started running last October in the absolute beginners' group and completed his first race on Saturday at Taunton 5k park run in a time of 29:49 and was 167th in a field of 273.

Geoff Woodward and Steve Reynolds were the only AVR members that made the trip to Cheddar to take part in The Big Cheese event; an off-road run of 15 miles with over 2000ft of climb.

The race started in a narrow lane and climbed 800ft in the first two miles up a stony track then continued over the Mendips. Reynolds finished in 2hrs 27mins 32secs with Woodward just 20 seconds back.

Honiton RC

with Judy Davey

TEN Honiton Running Club members travelled to North Devon on Sunday to take part in the Bideford

Half Marathon.

Sold as a fast, flat race runners reported a number of undulations as they left Bideford before returning on the pancake flat Tarka Trail.

The forecast was for rain and down it came!

Nevertheless, Hadleigh Davies had a great run finishing very close to his personal best time for the distance. He finished 90th in 1 hour 28 minutes and 47 seconds.

Steve Davey was next back finishing 169th in 1:36:06 with Bruce Strawbridge hot on his heels having had a great run finishing in 178th place and just 18 seconds later.

Judy Davey led the Honiton ladies home to come 248th in 1:40:09.

Paul Williams found he still had Grizzly in his legs but did well to come 270th in 1:41:22 while Mark Dalryn finished 305th in 1:43:18.

Mark had to find a last minute burst of energy when he realised Roger Saunders was right behind him and that's how they entered the finish funnel.

Richard Terry came 418th in 1:51:06 while Jenny Sleeman put in another great half marathon finishing at about the same time as she always does in 1:52:57 and 440th place.

Newly crowned club female Runner of the Year for the Club Kathy Layzell recorded a pb to come 683rd in 2:07:53.

The race was won by Shaun Antell in the amazing time of 1:10:50 and there were 849 finishers.

Relegation fears eased as Saracens are cut down

Honiton 20 Exeter Saracens 12

Tribute Cornwall/Devon

ON a glorious afternoon at Allhallows Honiton entertained Exeter Saracens in what was a crucial match for both sides. The visitors sit one place below Honiton in the league and just one point above the drop zone.

Honiton won the toss and elected to play up the field and it was clear they had intent when Jason Hannay broke from a ruck to win the foot race to the line.

Honiton then had the lion's share of possession and with the return of Will Goulden in the front row his crew dominated the set piece to give Honiton good platform ball.

They increased their lead on 16 minutes when Robbie Harrison bulldozed over from short range. Webber kicked the extras for a comfortable 12-0 lead.

Despite several near misses there was no further scoring before the break.

With the advantage of the slope in the second-half the hosts were perhaps guilty of thinking the job was done and two consecutive sin bindings didn't help matters.

The Lacemen kicked an early penalty to go 15-0 up but Sarries got back into the game with a well worked try.

Moments later they scored again with a converted try and at 12-15

Honiton were now under unnecessary pressure.

But they kept plugging away and, despite several opportunities and five-metre scums they managed to keep the visitors at bay.

Thankfully with time running out Honiton breached the Sarries defence and Goulden crashed over for a crucial score to seal a 20-12 victory.

This was an important win but it really should have been more comfortable but a victory was the order of the day.

The scrum was dominant through out which was pleasing and young Jack Proctor was picked out as Honiton man of the match.

With a weekend off there is still work to do to ensure Honiton remain safe in the league, Falmouth are the visitors on March 21st.

Cox and Vincent heading for another title

HONITON with Andy Wagner

THIRTY two ladies took part in the first medal competition of 2015.

There was a very strong, gusty wind but the sun shone and the course played well.

In silver division, Jane Watts was the winner with a net 79 and Janet Hughes claimed second place with a net 81.

However, the best scores of the day came in the Bronze 1 division where three ladies all had a net 77 so count back came into play - 1st Dot Grove, 2nd Sharon Dacre and 3rd Penny Blackburn.

Jan Portlock won the Bronze 2 division with a net 78. In the nine-hole Stableford competition Linda McLaughlin was the winner with 15 points.

Seniors Section

A BLUSTERY Friday saw the Seniors play their February Stableford plus Winter Eclectic.

Scoring wasn't spectacular but the divisional winners were very close.

Division One finished: John Fleetwood 36, Jim Wallis 36, Mike Ward 35, Dave Morgan 35, Dave Maggs 35.

In Division Two the outcome was: Peter Blake 37, Steve Blundell 36, Howard Pritchard 36, Bill Phillips 35, Bill Eaton 34.

There were three twos - Norman Runciman on 2, Bill Eaton on 10th, David Hughes on 12th.

AXE CLIFF with Rob Grove

THE penultimate round of the Seniors Winter League has left the title almost in the hands of the holders.

Alan Vincent & Gilbert Cox maintained their grip on the championship with a steady 33 points despite the efforts of the rest of the field to wrest it from them.

Neil Moorcraft & Malcolm Glass kept up their assault with a commendable 35 points as did the pairing of Roger Wright & Rob Grove.

But, unless a partnership can come up with a remarkable score in the final round, it does seem that Alan and Gilbert will be defending their title once again next year. The only two of the day came from Chris Walker.

On Sunday, March 1st the Men played their March Medal.

Result: Division One - 1st Alex Gabb, 2nd Paul Curtin. Division Two - 1st Steve Bond, 2nd Nigel Garwood.

On Wednesday, March 4th the Ladies played the Count Prize 2, result: 1st Caroline Bond, 2nd Lesley Crawford and 3rd Alison Cook.

Sidbury trio edge out Beer boys

◆ FINALISTS: East Devon Short Mat Bowls League Chairman David Haylor presents trophies to runners-up Beer and winners Sidbury.

CLOAKHAM Lawns played host to the East Devon & District Jurassic Bowls 2nd Annual Triples Competition last week with 24 teams of three played round-robin games of 10 ends.

The winners of each group and two highest runners-up went on to play in the quarter finals.

Uffculme's Richard Williams trailed from the start and were beaten by Beer's Peter Sydenham and team.

There were also wins for Biddesham and Uffculme over Combe St Nicholas and Winkleigh respectively.

The last quarter final saw Colyton's Peter Morgan and team face Sidbury's Eric Pavey and team. After four ends Sidbury trailed 10-2 down, but by the 10th end it was 14-14 which led to an extra end.

After the Colyton skip had delivered his last bowl he was holding shot, but Sidbury's Eric Pavey still had a bowl to go, and with only a small space to squeeze through he drew the bowl to take shot and clinch a place in the final.

The Semi finals saw Beer comfortably taking victory over Biddesham and Sidbury easing past Uffculme.

The final was a topsy-turvy affair, but by the fifth end Sidbury took control and completed a well-deserved win over a battling Beer team

Howzat! Duo swap Axminster for Seaton

SEATON Cricket Club have gained the services of former Axminster duo Joel Seward and Robbie Prior for the forthcoming season.

Seward, who scored 623 runs last season at an average of just over 69 joined Axminster at the age of 10 and made his 1st XI debut at the age of 14. He had a three year spell with Chard between 2010 and 2012 and also played for every Devon age group between under 14s and under 21s.

On his move to Seaton, Joel said: "With the new regionalised league format structure now in place it was a no brainer for me to join such a big club like Seaton who seem to have a strong intention to climb the ladder in the Devon League."

"Over the past couple of seasons I have played a few friendlies at Court Lane and enjoy every opportunity to get out onto one of the best grounds in East Devon."

"I would like to thank Axminster for all their help and wish them all the best for the up and coming season."

Prior joins after only a couple of appearances in 2014 due to knee surgery, but in 2013 he played a huge part with the ball in Axminster's promotion to the B division.

He also joined Axminster at the age of 10 and played for all their youth and senior teams before becoming a regular opening bowler for their 1st XI.

Prior, who played for Dorset at youth level and spent a season in Melbourne in 2012 scoring three centuries and taking 24 wickets is currently travelling in Canada.

He said: "I have been best friends with Seaton 1st XI captain Ben Morgan for 15 years and I believe the only time we played cricket together was at school, so I am very much looking forward to being on the same side as him."

"I am excited about a new challenge and I believe Seaton can put up a strong challenge this season."

"I have had a great time playing for Axminster for the last 14 years and would like to wish them all the best for the season ahead."

Morgan was delighted with the signings, he said: "Growing up with Joel and Robbie and playing with them for Axminster under 17s and at school. I know that they are two very good players and have performed at a very good level."

"The restructuring of the leagues means we are playing in the C Division this term whereas last year we were playing in the D."

"The lads will bring huge experience and quality to the side and we are all looking forward to playing alongside them both."

Anyone else who may want to join the club in the playing department or as a volunteer (scorer, umpire etc) should call Ben Morgan on 07787 436583.

Fun for all at inaugural Futsal tournament

◆ CHAMPIONS: Colyton A team

THE very first East Devon U12 Futsal Cup was recently won by Colyton A who beat Colyton C in the final. Colyton B were third and Lyme Regis A were fourth.

The Plate was won by Avishayes A with Perry Street B runners-up. Millwey Rise were third and Seaton A fourth.

EDYL spokesman Mike Baker said: "As far as the League is concerned we were very happy with the way the competition panned out, particularly as it kept all the players regularly involved with football at a time of year when we traditionally lose a lot of fixtures to the weather. "The feedback from the Clubs and parents has also been very positive. We will definitely consider doing the same thing next season."

◆ THIRD IN PLATE: Millwey Rise
